The first three semesters will consist of 20 hours per week institutional delivery (within the college environment) and the student can then work their (allowable) 20 hours a week in the Building & Construction (B&C) Industry, generally we would expect wages to be anywhere from $15.00 - 25.00 per hour.

The institutional delivery consists of 20 hours per week (or 40 hours per fortnight to be more precise) - Monday & Tuesday one week and Wednesday & Thursday & Friday the next.

The final semester is for the student to gain their 900 hours of on-site work experience (40 hours per week). All indications from industry are that these hours will be paid.

Again we would expect this will be paid at the $15.00 - $25.00 per hour mark.

We cannot guarantee these wages but they are a fair indication of the market at the moment.
